

Name: _____

Before You Were Born

4th – 6th Grade

Across

2. The inner layer of skin is the _____.
3. _____ is the fluid which the baby's kidneys and bladder filter and move back into the amniotic fluid.
7. The _____ cord attaches the placenta to the baby's tummy.
8. The _____ is the muscle which helps the lungs breathe in and out.
9. The _____ is the muscular organ inside the mother where the baby grows.
10. The outer layer of the skin is the _____.
11. The brain and nerves necessary for a baby to feel _____ develop between 8 and 13 weeks.

Down

1. The _____ sac is the fluid-filled bag in which the baby floats.
4. _____ is the way the body protects itself from diseases.
5. The meaning of the Latin word fetus is _____.
6. The _____ is the organ through which the mother's body provides oxygen and food to the baby and takes the baby's waste products away.

AMNIOTIC
DERMIS
DIAPHRAGM
EPIDERMIS

IMMUNITY
OFFSPRING
PAIN
PLACENTA

UMBILICAL
URINE
UTERUS

Name: _____

Before You Were Born

4th – 6th Grade ANSWER KEY

Across

2. The inner layer of skin is the dermis.
3. Urine is the fluid which the baby's kidneys and bladder filter and move back into the amniotic fluid.
7. The umbilical cord attaches the placenta to the baby's tummy.
8. The diaphragm is the muscle which helps the lungs breathe in and out.
9. The uterus is the muscular organ inside the mother where the baby grows.
10. The outer layer of the skin is the epidermis.
11. The brain and nerves necessary for a baby to feel pain develop between 8 and 13 weeks.

Down

1. The amniotic sac is the fluid-filled bag in which the baby floats.
4. Immunity is the way the body protects itself from diseases.
5. The meaning of the Latin word fetus is offspring.
6. The placenta is the organ through which the mother's body provides oxygen and food to the baby and takes the baby's waste products away.

AMNIOTIC
DERMIS
DIAPHRAGM
EPIDERMIS

IMMUNITY OFFSPRING
PAIN
PLACENTA

UMBILICAL
URINE
UTERUS